DM-470

DEPUTIES' MEETING

Monday, 5 March 1956

PRESENT: Mr. Dulles, Gen. Cabell, Mr. Wisner, Mr. Amory, Col. White, Messrs. Kirkpatrick, Helms, Sheldon,
Gen. Truscott, Mr. [redacted]

25X1

Mr. Dulles:

25X1

c. Noted he had spoken to Col. Goodpaster with respect to the possibility of the President or Jim Hagerty receiving communications from [redacted] regarding the [redacted] and stated Col. Goodpaster had indicated that so far as he knew nothing had been received to date on this subject.

25X1

d. Noted that [redacted] is planning to speak to the Council on Foreign Relations at its next meeting on his talk with Khrushchev and asked DD/I to attend if he can possibly do so.

25X1

[Redacted]

25X1

25X1
25X1 g. Referred to a State cable on the Kurdish situation and noted this might eventually become explosive and we should watch it. [Redacted]

Col. White:

[Redacted]

25X1

b. Reported that so far CIA is in good shape budget-wise for the remainder of the fiscal year and should there be any projects hanging fire it would be well to process them now. Col. White suggested, however, that we should not attempt to put through marginal programs just because funds are available since all unexpended money in this year's budget will revert to the CIA reserve.

Mr. Amory:
